

Deana Tietjen served for 8 years as the Legal Director at one of New York City's largest family and children services agencies, New York Foundling. While at the Foundling she created and staffed a comprehensive in-house legal department for all proceedings in family court, including custody, guardianship, termination of parental rights and neglect/abuse and adoption cases. Prior to her non-profit work, Ms. Tietjen was in private practice for 15 years representing individual clients and foster care agencies throughout New York City. She served as Assistant Director for the YWCA Supervised Visitation Program in Westchester County where she managed staff, MSW interns and reported to the Court on visitation/custody cases that alleged domestic violence, abuse and neglect. She is a graduate of New England Law and has a Bachelor of Arts from Syracuse University.
